Empathy Map

Understand the FitBuddy user from four perspectives: what they say, think, do, and feel while trying to build a consistent fitness routine.

SAYS

- “I need a workout plan that fits my goals and schedule.”
- “I want to know what exercises to do and how often.”
- “I need a plan that can adapt as I make progress.”

THINKS

- “Will this plan match my current fitness level?”
- “Can I follow it with the time and equipment I have?”
- “How will I know when to change or progress my workouts?”

DOES

- Sets personal fitness goals and considers available time and equipment.
- Follows planned workouts and tracks completed sessions.
- Adjusts the routine based on progress, feedback, and availability.

FEELS

- Overwhelmed by generic or conflicting workout advice.
- Motivated when the plan feels practical and achievable.
- More confident when progress and next steps are clear.

PERSONA

Fitness Goal Seeker · Primary User
